

DBA Student Association

The DBA Student Association is dedicated to establishing a dynamic sense of community for its members through professional networking and development events, working with Argosy faculty and administration to maintain quality academic support for doctoral business students, and creating leadership and service opportunities. Contact its President for further information and to join - Dr. Jay Jiwani jayjiwani@comcast.net.