It is the policy of the Argosy University-Chicago Campus to make reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities, in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). If a student with disabilities needs accommodations to complete the exam, the student must notify the Director of Student Services. Procedure for documenting student disability and the development of reasonable accommodation will be provided to students upon request.

Upon submission of this request, the Department Administrator will review the student's coursework to ensure eligibility for the examination. The student will receive confirmation that she or he has fulfilled all of the requirements to sit for the exam, or will receive a letter indicating deficiencies that need to be addressed before the student will be allowed to sit for the exam.

Please note that the exam is normally three times a year at the end of each semester. Students have two additional times after the first administration to pass the exam. If the exam is not passed on the third try, the student will be automatically dismissed from the program. If you do not receive confirmation at least one week prior to the start of the exam period please contact the Counselor Education Department Administrator, Jonathan Webb .
