

Fall 2009 CRP AREAS of INTEREST

Listed below are the CRP interests for the core faculty.

Faculty	Topics
Dr. Sue Bae	Cross-cultural psychology Professional development Multicultural psychotherapy International psychology Anxiety Related Disorders
Dr. Charles Davis	Multicultural Psychology Ethnic Racial Identity Development African-American Psychological Issues Child and Adolescent Development and Psychotherapy Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder Sports Psychology
Dr. Judith Flaxman	EMDR Sleep Disorders
Dr. Adam Froerer	Couples and Family Therapy Medical Family Therapy Intimate Partner Violence Communication Theory Solution-Focused Brief Therapy
Dr. Kathy Goggin	Psychoanalytic Theory & Psychotherapy Spiritual and Transpersonal issues in diagnosis and treatment Consciousness Studies Substance Abuse Clinical Supervision Integral Psychology (i.e. based on the work of Ken Wilber) Indigenous/Cultural Healing Perspectives
Dr. Leah Horvath	Treatment outcome studies Relationship satisfaction/couples interactions Personality and individual differences Eating Disorders Quantitative Studies DBT and Mindfulness based interventions
Dr. Mark Kiel	Psychoanalytic/Psychodynamic theory and application pieces Clinical readiness for trainees in clinical psychology Group Relations/Tavistock models of group/organizational psychology Group Psychotherapy research, theory and application pieces. Program development and interventions for organizations (particularly regarding diversity). Leadership, Management and the Q-Sort methodology Institutional Research in the Personal and Professional Development program
Dr. Myra Lawrence	Attachment issues in development, parenting and foster/adoptive parenting Narrative Storytelling [to resolve trauma, promote attachment, facilitate interpersonal attunement, etc.] Adoption, Cross-Cultural Adoption Clinical Prevention & Intervention Program Development and Evaluation School-based Program Development and Evaluation Social Aggression, Bullying & Teasing
Dr. Myra Leifer	Research in all areas of Child Maltreatment Child & Family Issues Attachment Issues Intervention with Children & Families
Dr. Steve Miller	Quantitative Studies Personality and Individual Differences Emotion
Dr. Kathleen O'Brien	Forensic Psychology Assessment for Forensics Ethics
Dr. Scott Pytluk	Psychoanalytic Topics Sexuality and Gender-Related Topics Eating Disorders Qualitative (e.g.: Grounded Theory, Case Studies) and Some Quantitative Methodologies

Faculty	Topics
Dr. Mirjam Quinn	Cross-cultural psychology Social justice Personality and individual differences Women's issues Child development Group therapy AD/HD Identity development Quantitative studies Mindfulness
Dr. Peter Reiner	Psychoanalytic Theory and Therapy Family Systems Theory and Therapy Couple and Marital Dynamics and Treatment Clinical Supervision Integrative Psychotherapy
Dr. Neal Rubin	Psychoanalytic Case Studies Therapy of Severe Disorders Topics in International Psychology
Dr. Eliezer Schwartz	Neuropsychological Assessment Psychotherapy with Neurologically Impaired Psychotherapy with ADD/LD Psychopharmacology and Psychotherapy: combined treatment paradigm Psychology and Spirituality Selected Topics in Health Psychology
Dr. Rahul Sharma	Multicultural/Ethnic Diversity South Asian issues Domestic Violence (including batterer intervention) Qualitative Research related to Diversity Topics
Dr. Annie Slobig	Intrapsychic Humanism Personal and Professional Development of Clinical Psychologists Group Relations Training
Dr. Margaret Smith-Zoeller	Neocolonialism Cross-cultural psychology Native Americans Clinical competency areas Clinical Supervision
Dr. Andrew Suth	Mourning and loss Assessment Theoretical underpinnings of psychology, and psychodynamic and contemporary psychoanalytic theory adolescent parenting Gay/Lesbian Identity Development Neuropsychology
Dr. John Tirado	Culture Community Mental Health Neuropsychology Clinical Supervision
Dr. Courtland Tisdale	Eating Disorders Cognitive Psychology Personality Assessment Personality Disorders
Dr. David Van Dyke	Family psychology Medical Family Therapy Juvenile Delinquency
Dr. Margaret Warner	CRP group beginning on research and theory development based on intensive analysis of transcripts/tapes of a single schizophrenic client Research on Person-Centered Groups, with a focus on Trust Development and Diversity Issues Client-centered or humanistic approaches to therapy with severe developmentally-based disorders (i.e., fragile process, dissociated process, or psychotic process) Gay-Lesbian issues Spirituality Schizophrenia
Dr. Ted Welsch	Client-Centered/Person-Centered Approach Health psychology

Faculty	Topics
Dr. Torrey Wilson	Family and Couples Treatment Diversity/Multicultural Issues Health Psychology-Behavioral Medicine Public Health/Structural-Socio-Cultural Issues
Dr. Marge Witty	Client-centered therapy and the person-centered approach
Dr. Kaveh Zamanian	Psychoanalytic Theory and Practice Child and Adolescent Development Addictions and Compulsive Disorders Diversity with an Emphasis on Immigration and Acculturation International Psychology and Relations
Dr. Sandra G. Zakowski	Traumatic Stress Refugee Issues Health Psychology
Dr. Susan Zoline	Professional Ethics Psychology and Judaism Boundary Issues Clinical Supervision Special Needs in Children