

Third Annual Student Research Day May 24, 2011

The Third Annual Student Research Day hosted by the Faculty Rank/Development/Policy/Research Committee was held on May 24th. Over 55 student posters were represented from all departments at Argosy University, Chicago. This was the first time that students from all departments were represented which led to an interesting, exciting, and diverse discussions on research. Drs. Florine Robinson and Marge Smith-Zoeller reviewed all of the posters represented during the event and selected five posters as the best posters of the year.

The winners are:

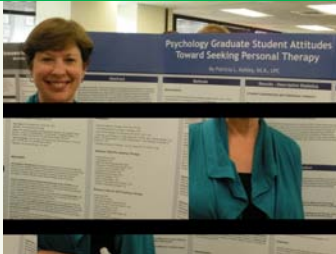

Winner – Ashley Davis (Clinical Psychology)

Sexual Violence In The Military: Sexist Attitudes as a Mediator Toward Rape-Supported Cognitions

Winner – Kimberly Thomas (Counselor of Education)

Losing Sight of Rule #1: A Review of Teen Dating Violence

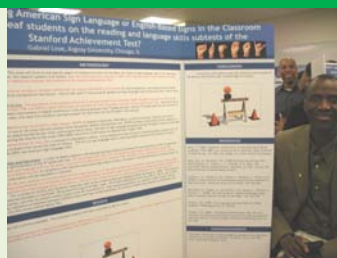

Winner – Patricia Ashley (Clinical Psychology)

Psychology Graduate Student Attitudes Toward Seeking Personal Therapy

Winner – Angela Payne (Graduate Business)

Examination of Ethnic and Policy Issues in Grooming Preferences and Ethnic Hairstyles of African American Women in Corporate America

Winner – Gabriel Love (Education)

Does the Choice Between Using American Sign Language or English-Based Signs in the Classroom Affect the Proficiency of Deaf Children on the Reading and Language Skills Subtests of the Stanford Achievement Test?

Thank you to all who participated!