

The Semester before you Expect to Graduate

The semester before you think you will be graduating you should contact your academic advisor to request a petition to graduate form be sent to you. Your advisor will complete an audit of your coursework to see if you are on target for graduation. You should be keeping track of all the classes you are taking on your degree audit/standard path form.