

Registering for Classes

Beginning with the Spring 2011 semester, undergraduate students will register for classes on your own, through the online mechanisms that are in place for you to do so (graduate students have been doing so for a long time now). The undergraduate programs have grown to a size where it is no longer feasible for you to do this individually with your advisor. But, you will receive direction on how to do this from Student Services, and you will always be able to consult with your academic advisor, Nicole Blotnick at nblotnick@argosy.edu or 312-777-7639, should you need help.
